

Tammie “Ruby” Rubel, RN

Nursing Scholarship

The McLaren Flint Foundation

Tammie began her Nursing career in January 1994 at McLaren Flint. Her first job was in the Emergency Department. In her first year of ER, she was given the nickname “Ruby;” the name most in the hospital know her by. During her time as an ER nurse, Tammie participated in unit based practice council, babysitter seminars for students and became a Certified Emergency Room Nurse. After 5 years, she became the ANM for ER until 2007 when she agreed to become the Manager of PCU, the stepdown ICU. In 2014, she took a position as a Clinical Nurse Educator. In 2015, she became the Director of Clinical Nursing Education and EMS. Tammie’s proudest achievements are the mentoring of other nurses to become leaders and any change she has been a part of to improve patient outcomes. Tammie is married with two adult sons, Logan and Noah, and a grandson named Gannon.
