

Doris Beebe, RN

Memorial Nursing Scholarship

The McLaren Flint Foundation
Established by the Rachor Family Foundation, Ltd

Doris Beebe began her nursing career in 1952 as a Graduate of the Hurley Nursing Program and later obtained her RN from the University of Michigan. Doris chose to serve the women of Genesee County as an Obstetrics Nurse. Shortly after she began her career, a Mott Community College professor recommended her to teach Obstetrics at the Flint, Mott Children's Center. Doris is quoted as saying "I kind of fell into OB nursing and I never regretted it because I loved providing care and support for the families in our community." Doris finished her career at McLaren Flint where she managed a full staff as a Nurse Manager. Doris retired in 1982, after 30 years of service and was proud to serve with many noted McLaren Flint nurses such as Frances Simnitch. Doris still served the community as a member of the McLaren Flint Auxiliary Volunteers where she worked in many capacities to support staff and patients.
