

Margaret Laurin, RN

Nursing Scholarship

The McLaren Flint Foundation
Established by the Rachor Family Foundation, Ltd

Margaret Laurin began her nursing career in 1968 as a St. Luke's School of Nursing graduate. As a resident of the Upper Peninsula, she was proud to obtain her RN from the Marquette, MI program. She worked her entire 34-year career at McLaren Flint. After retiring from McLaren, she continued serving her community by helping patients and families at Homewood Village Assisted Living which was an affiliate of the McLaren family. During her extended career, Margaret worked in OB, Oncology, Medical/Surgical, Cardiology and the Outpatient Clinic. She considered herself a well-rounded nurse as she held many roles throughout her career. "Every day I felt like I contributed something to the patients and families who came to McLaren," said Margaret. "I also learned so much from the people I served. I never wanted to become a supervisor because I liked being more hands-on with the patients," said Margaret. She finished her career at McLaren Flint in 2002 where she was working in the outpatient clinic. Margaret still serves the community as a member of the McLaren Flint Auxiliary Volunteers where she works at the Hospitality House to support staff, patients and their families to this day.
