

Mary Weinschreider, RN

Centennial Memorial Nursing Scholarship

The McLaren Flint Foundation
Established by the Rachor Family Foundation, Ltd

Mary Weinschreider, R.N. (1914-2001) was appointed McLaren General Hospital's Director of Nursing in 1952 under the direction of Marjorie Sanders. She was a Registered Nurse with a Bachelor of Science degree and was active in the Michigan State Nurses Association, where beginning in 1959, she served as the Chairman of the Economic Security program (ESP).

The ESP was created to improve employment conditions for nurses and was essential to achieving the organization's mission of promoting quality nursing care. Mary Weinschreider, R.N. was instrumental in creating guidelines through the association to support quality patient care which is the essence of what nursing stands for today.
