

Patricia Perrine, RN Nursing Scholarship

The McLaren Flint Foundation
Established by the Rachor Family Foundation, Ltd

Patricia Perrine was always interested in nursing and after graduating from Coldwater High School in 1965 received her 3-year nursing degree at Foote Memorial Hospital in Jackson, Michigan. Throughout her career, Patricia always sought to improve herself. She received a bachelor's degree from U of M Flint, a Master's Degree in Nursing at Wayne State University and later received her Family Nurse Practitioner License from Saginaw Valley State University. She began working at McLaren Hospital in 1976 and for 30 years devoted her time and energy to supporting the patients and staff before retiring as the Director of Med Surge Nursing. Patricia continues to show her support of McLaren Hospital as a member of the Board of Trustees since 2013.
