Memorial Nursing Scholarship

Established by the Rachor Family Foundation, Ltd

After high school graduation, Nancy A. Stamos worked at Dow Chemical as she pursued her education to become a LPN. Shortly thereafter, her interest to become a Registered Nurse quickly developed. Having six children, she wanted what was best for her children. Nancy received her nursing degree through Mott Community College. Nancy was soft-spoken with a calm demeanor; she was patient and always willing to help. She mentored the new nurses that started on her floor and helped them feel more comfortable. Being a nurse was a natural match for Nancy. She found medicine to be interesting and wanted to make people well again.

Nancy was a nurse at McLaren Regional Medical Center for 32 years. She worked in the Intensive Care Unit then transferred to the Surgical Unit where she cared for Cardiac and Neuro patients.
