CANCER REHABILITATION SERVICES

A diagnosis isn't the end of your story; it's the beginning of a new chapter. Cancer and its treatments can have a profound effect on a person's ability to function and continue with their daily activities. At McLaren Greater Lansing, our goal is to minimize the side effects of cancer treatment and encourage cancer survivors to have the best quality of life.

Our multidisciplinary approach combines all components of care to ensure optimal outcomes. Each patient will receive an individualized rehabilitation program to address their specific needs and one-on-one patient-centered care.
