

MEDICAL ETHICS QUIZ

1) Match each term with the correct definition

Medical Ethics	Inability to follow one's own moral beliefs due to external restrictions such as organizational policies and procedures or state laws.
Ethical Dilemmas	Beliefs of what is right and wrong.
Morals	Quandaries that occur when conflicting moral beliefs intrude on the ethical decision-making process.
Moral distress	The study of standards of right and wrong, moral conduct, and moral judgments.
Values	Beliefs, customs, goals, or modes of conduct that are highly prized by individuals, groups, cultures, or society.

2) A Medical Ethics Consult would be appropriate when

- A) The patient is deemed incompetent and within the family there is disagreement about end-of-life care.
- B) The family wants more aggressive care than is being offered by the attending physician.
- C) The nursing staff disagrees with the physician's plan of care.
- D) All of the above

3) Anyone can request a Medical Ethics Consult, to do so

- A) Contact the Psychiatric Consultation & Liaison Service at 975-6475
- B) Ask the patient's Attending Physician for an order
- C) Contact the hospital Social Worker
- D) Contact John Schneider at the Lansing State Journal

Name _____

Dept _____

Date _____