

Aretha Brock, LPN

Memorial Nursing Scholarship

The McLaren Flint Foundation

Aretha Brock was born in Shelby, Tennessee, was raised in Tishomingo, Mississippi and the oldest of 6 children. Her interest in nursing began when her grandmother fell ill. Aretha took care of her grandmother and decided to pursue a career in Nursing. She had many great mentors and teachers both in Mississippi and in Flint. After completing her degree, Aretha's aunt suggested that she apply for Nursing positions in Flint, Michigan. Aretha worked at McLaren Regional Medical Center from 1985 to 2002 caring for cardiac patients on 12 Tower. Aretha moved to and cared for patients in Iuka, Mississippi until she passed away in February of 2011.
